That's right - print isn't dead!

The FURTHEST NORTH CREW APA,

a Canadian-based, quarterly Amateur Press Association, is looking for artists and writers to join the fun! Print APAs may not be as instant as web pages, but they can be enjoyed without a computer, and don't disappear anywhere near as fast as electronic data. Show off your art, writing, or other creative streak in the field of anthromopomorphics to your peers, in permanent editions for your bookshelf!
