FNC Rules (reduced version)

The subject of this APA is discussion and creation of anthropomorphic material. The subject can range from G to R ratings, but not including X. For this reason, we ask that members be at least 18 years of age to join.

The membership roster is capped at 38 people for logistical reasons, with a waitlist if no regular spot is open.

Copy count is 20 copies, double-sided. Leave a 2cm (3/4") binding margin. A copy service is available for those who can't make their own, at a cost of Cdn$0.70 per original. Please, no staples, paste-ups, glue or other odd thickness on the pages, due to finicky copier machines.

Paper colour other than white is always appreciated for pre-copied tribs, and gives pizzazz to the issue!

Deadlines are quarterly, set around March 10, June 10, September 10 and December 10. The front page of the editorial always lists the next deadline, or you can check the website at <http://fnc.furry.com>.

Minimum Activity (MinAc) is set at three pages of creative material in any 2 consecutive issues. Covers currently count as a full contrib. This does not count comments, but comments are any APA's lifeblood so they are heavily encouraged.

Maximum activity (MaxAc) is set at 50 pages per issues (25 sheets), double-sided.

To be a full member, dues must be paid directly to the Treasurer before the first contribution. Dues are currently set at $25CDN for Canadian members and $28USD for continental US members, lasting at least a year. International costs are higher; contact the Treasurer directly for an estimate.

Considering the creative nature of this APA, we ask that members do not put in more than 50% of previously published material in their tribs.
